

Pasquah Band: Metis Who Left Treaty

Pasquah, Pisqua, or The Plain, known in French as Les Prairies was a Plains Cree and chief of a band of Plains Saulteaux; b. c. 1828; d. 15 March 1889 on his reserve near Fort Qu'Appelle. Pasquah was said to have been the son of Mahkaysis, a prominent chief of the Plains Cree who died in 1872. Prior to 1874, Pasquah and his band lived near Leech Lake. The members of the band depended primarily on the buffalo hunt, small game, and fish for their livelihood.
